Oooooooo Numb. 4101.

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, December 15. 1714.

London, December 15.

Yesterday arrived three Mails from Holland.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated Dec. 18.

Warsaw, December 1.

THE King has received Advice by Express, that the King of Sweden is arrived at Straelsund. The Russian Troops continue to encamp upon the Frontiers of Mohilow in Lithuania, but do not exact Contributions from the Country. The King assisted at a great Conference held lately between the Polish and Saxon Ministers, concerning the present Posture of Affairs; and 'tis said that it was then resolved, that part of the Saxon Troops should return home to ease Poland; that those Palatinates which had offended the King should make Reparation; that Poland and Saxony shall reciprocally assist one another in Case they should be attacked by the Swedes; that the Generals of the Crown Army should be invited to come to Warsaw, to deliberate upon the Means of putting the Army upon a better Foot, in order to make it more serviceable than it has hitherto been; that a Minister shall be sent to the Court of Vienna, to represent the unhappy Consequences that are justly to be apprehended if Peace be not made in the North, and if the War should be renewed in Germany and Poland; and lastly, that his Polish Majesty shall contribute all that in him lies to facilitate the Conclusion of a Peace.

Warsaw, Dec. 2. The Minister of the King of Great Britain had Yesterday Audience of the King, and 'tis said he had Orders to propose to his Majesty a new Aliance with the King his Master. General Fleming went hence Yesterday to go to the Congress at Brunswick. The Deputies of the Crown Army are gone, having received a Promise that the Saxon Troops which remain in Poland shall be no Charge in their Winter-Quarters to the Inhabitants.

From the Hague Courant, dated Dec. 19.

Vienna, Dec. 5. Yesterday the Swedish Chancellour Muller, with two Officers and one of the King's Couriers, arrived here from Turkey. There will be Conferences held with that Minister, to consider of the Means of putting an End to the War in the North; and 'tis desired they may begin as soon as may be, that General Stanhope, who purposes to depart in a few Days, may assist at them. The Swedish Troops to the Number of 1200, are all arrived in Transylvania, and are marching forward to Pomerania in five Columns.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 21.

Vienna, Dec. 9. General Stanhope continues to have frequent Conferences with the Emperour's Ministers, and he expects suddenly the return of an Express he has sent to the King of Great Britain, to know his Majesty's Sentiments upon some Propositions made for pacifying the Troubles of the North. M. Muller has had Audience of the Emperour, and has thanked his Majesty in Name of the King his Master for his Kindness to his Swedish Majesty.

The Emperour continues to employ his Thoughts in endeavouring to pacify the Troubles in the North, to which purpose his Majesty has written a-new to the Potentates concerned therein, to send immediately their Ministers to Brunswick to renew the Conferences there with Count Schonborn; but it does not appear that the King of Sweden is much disposed to Peace; on the contrary 'tis confidently said, that Prince designs to make another Push for restoring his Affairs by the Power of the Sword: and they say publickly at Straelsund, that he is resolved upon an Enterprize that will make a Noise in the World.

Francfort, Dec. 14. General Stanhope is by this time come from Vienna, being extreamly satisfied with the Success of his Negociation at the Imperial Court. We are assured that 14 Imperial Regiments have Orders to march to the Netherlands. The Bavarian Troops continue their March to their own Country, and the Baggage of the Elector set out the 4th from Compeigne, and his other Baggage at Namur was to be sent away on the 8th.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 18.

Brussels, Dec. 13. The States Deputies, who arrived here last Monday from Antwerp, are returned thither, after having conferred with Count Coningseck and General Cadogan upon the Subject of the new Tariff which is to be established with England and Holland. We look upon the Treaty of Barrier as in a manner finished, waiting only the return of another Express from Vienna to put the last Hand to it.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 21.

Brussels, Dec. 17. Count Coningseck and General Cadogan went on Friday last to Antwerp, where they held the next Day the 17th Conference upon the Treaty of the Barrier. These two Ministers will return hither in two or three Days, to finish with M. vander Berg the States Depury, the Regulation concerning the Reparition of the Imperial Troops who are to come into the Dutchies of Limburg and Luxemburg. 'Tis believed part of those Troops will be placed in the County of Namur, as Count Coningseck has demanded in the Name of the Emperour.
